

New Release

"Vivenda is a project that I have been dreaming of for a long time; It means "home" in Portuguese; it is the word I chose as the title for my first released album, my label, and the title for one of my compositions. The album is a celebration of Brazilian music, and I chose to record some of my favorite Brazilian standards, which represent the richness of our musical heritage. It is a great repertoire, and all music that I feel a deep connection to.

Vivenda is an attempt to put into words and music the feeling of living in a new country, a new town, and a new house, but knowing that the place where I was born and grew up will always be my home, and will be in my heart forever.

I believe that the music that I make is a result of everything that I nurture within myself. I've had the privilege to have many wonderful and very different people in my life; through them I became who I am, and their various influences have led me to realize my dreams. I thank deeply all of my family and friends for sharing their life and dreams with me!"
